

- Continuous compounding is when the principal is constantly earning interest and the number of compounding periods increases without bound.

$$A = Pe^{RT} \quad (1)$$

- A= Accumulated balance or Amount
- P= Principal
- R= Annual rate (in decimal)
- T= Time